Speedometer Record—Episode Two

“Speed” looks around the roof and is seen by the detectives. He darts down the fire-escape, leaps to the rope of a painter's scaffold and goes down hand over hand. He sees he is blocked on all sides, but swings on the rope across the court, seizes the edge of a window ledge and climbs in, making his escape.

“Speed” arrives at a bridge over the river. He leaps from the bridge, lands on a scow and does a tight rope walk from the scow towline to the tug.

“Speed” then hastens to Lucy's studio, where he learns that Jim Sprague is about to sail for South America. With Lucy, he plans a way for the girl and himself to book passage on a ship, but the plans are made carefully, as he knows his enemies will be on the same vessel.

A daring feat is performed by “Speed” in boarding the ship. He eludes his enemies and hides in a lifeboat while Lucy brings him food. His hiding place is discovered as land is almost reached, and a terrific fight is the result. “Speed” decides to escape by jumping overboard. He does this and is attacked by a huge shark “Speed” puts up the struggle of his life and with the shark he sinks under the surface of the water.
